

Crazy for Christmas

Tara Zeman/Photographer

Beegle Hall lobby is decorated with stockings above the fireplace. Beegle Hall residents got into the spirit of Christmas, decorating the lobby and each floor in a competition.

Tara Zeman/Photographer

The "Lighting of the Green" was held on Monday, Dec. 2nd. The band played and President Dr. Steven Titus counted down the seconds until the lights around campus were lit.

Tara Zeman/Photographer

Freshman Anita Larson studies in her Christmas bedecked room.

Tara Zeman/Photographer

Each floor on Beegle Hall held a Christmas decorating competition on Monday, Dec. 2nd. Shown here is third floor west's pond "Reflections of Christmas." Third west won first place while ground west and third east tied for second.

Ben Schroeder/Sports Editor

Senior Jeremy Marburger (left) rings bells at Food 4 Less for the Salvation Army during a Blue Key community service project last Tuesday.