

The Abominable Snowman (above) from the holiday show "Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer" makes an appearance on third west in Beegle Hall. Another attraction to third west floor in Beegle Hall is the Christmas drawings (below) that were colored by those residents.

Lights in Omaha's Gene Leaby mall were lit at on Thanksgiving and can be seen until Christmas.

Deck the Halls

A photo essay of Christmas Decorations
Photos by Nikki Carlson, Claire Hruska and Crystal Bauer

Good ole St. Nick rounds the hallways of Beegle Hall to give the girls their gifts for Christmas. The jolly elf will be making his final rounds in 18 days.

Freshman Alison Bivens (top) makes popcorn strings, freshman Amanda Smeal (above) colors a nativity scene and freshman Beth Bell (below) assembles paper chains as they decorate the west hallway on third west floor in Beegle Hall.

This Christmas tree in the room of freshmen Lindsey Blair and Katrina Kreikemeier.